Judge at the Well

As the final demanding year of mixing and vocal recording drew to a close, I took a short break in Glastonbury with my girlfriend, Fiona (who took the picture). It's a favourite place of ours and only an hour from Bath. Here I am at Chalice Well, the epicentre of the genuine strangeness that surrounds this little town, and looking every year of my half century. Six years is a long time to be working on one project.
